Sightseeing

City tour & Livadia Palace (4hrs)

Yalta is a charming town which combines elements of the 19th century French Riviera and Soviet-era seaside resorts. Livadia Palace was the site of the "Big Three Conference" in 1945 held by Winston Churchill, Franklin Roosevelt and Josef Stalin. It was built as a summer residence for Tsar Nicholas II in 1911.

Sevastopol, Panorama Museum & Khersones (8hrs)

The drive between Yalta and Sevastopol is one of the most scenic in Crimea. The naval port of Sevastopol retains a strong Russian feel, due to its importance during the Crimean War and WWII. The Panorama Museum depicts the 349 day siege of Sevastopol in June 1855. The UNESCO World Heritage site of Khersonesus began as a Greek colony.

Bakhchisarai & Assumption Monastery (8hrs)

The former Tatar city of Bakhchisarai was founded in the 15th century on the old trade route from Khersonesus to the north. The Khan's palace was built in 1430. The Assumption Monastery and tiny church were built into the limestone rock of the surrounding hill by monks in the 8th and 9th century and is today a working monastery.
